

5 Fab Products To Fight Frizzy Curls

We always want what we can't have. If we have straight hair, we want it curly. If we have curly hair, we want it straight. What can I say? We're not simple creatures! If you're one of the gals that has been blessed with naturally curly hair, I promise you—you are admired by all of us who lack in the good-hair department, no matter how much you may fight to tame those babies every morning. When I see the sexy curls on Taylor Swift and AnnaLynne McCord, they make me want to cry! I am so jealous that it's not even funny, but I know it takes some great products to fight the frizz. Here are five that I've rounded up that get good grades!

- UNITE Eurotherapy "Boing" Curling Cream* — All sizes of curls should be happy with this hydrating curl enhancing cream. Whether you've got loose beach waves or natural ringlets, I find this lacks the "crunch" that some mousses may give while offering a little bit more control.
- White Sands Curl Up In Silk Mousse* — If you can even make it past the fact that this mousse smells INCREDIBLE, you may find it versatile enough to give curly hair a frizz-free blow-out or scrunch it in and allow it to air dry for weightless manageability. Curl Up In Silk is available in Medium and Firm control options so you're covered.
- Redken Fresh Curls Anti-Frizz Shiner — This is really cool stuff! The cream-to-serum blocks out humidity to give curls glossy frizz-protection. It's also recommended for use on dry hair so you can have a second-day smoothing session if you want!

- Colure Curl Wave Styling Crème* — I found this botanically-based curl styling cream rich in therapeutic ingredients like chamomile, aloe, and lavender. Perfect for air-drying, Curl Wave helps provide definition and offers the UV protection that some styling products may lack for color-treated hair!
- Dove Curl & Sculpt Defining Mousse — This drugstore favorite gets rave reviews and feels pretty weightless on hair but leaves behind a fabulous fresh scent like most Dove products are known to do. I know several people who have said they will never again buy a pricey mousse after using Curl & Sculpt because it delivered the goods for lightweight control and curl definition!
